For Commissioner of Agriculture.

Mr. J. R. McDanell, Superintendent of schools, of Gallatin county, has announced as candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. McDanell was reared on a Gallatin county farm and is really identified with the best interests of the farmers, and there is no better man for the place. He has many acquaintances in this county who will give him their support, and it will be no trouble for him to carry this county. Mr. McDanell married Miss Mayme Groves, a former teacher and an ideal lady of this city. Here's to both of them the very best wishes of a host of Powell county friends.

In speaking of Mr. McDanell in part the Warsaw Independent his home paper says:

"As to political affiliation, Superintendent McDanell comes from one of the oldest Democratic families in Kentucky, and has always been allied with the interests of his party, and is considered one of the workers of the Democratic party in his county and district.

He is well known and popular all over the Sixth District and if nominated would poll the full party strength at the November election following.

Divorcing the man from the office—considering other qualifications which are equally vital with those of technical nature, and considering James R. McDanell as a man, as a citizen, we find he unites all those true qualities which form character of the highest type. He is a man who in life has set certain high ideals and has done even more—lived up to them. Personally, he is genial, companionable and unselfish—the kind of man who will never consider any test as too severe for friendship—a man whose loyalty to a friend is only quickened by adversity. In character as well as in qualification he is eminently fitted for the office to which he aspires.

While it is true that personally he is our friend—yet we would not avail ourselves of even the license of friendship in paying him that tribute to which his worth so well entitles him—the tribute the world must ever accord the upright man, the progressive citizen, the christian gentleman."

Bridge Question Revived.

The bridge question is being revived in Powell county again. The promoters seem to want a bridge at Hammon's ford and at Old Clay City. This proposition is good as far as it goes, but it does not go quite far enough. Clay City and the county badly need one more bridge and that across the ford on the South side of the city. The proof that this bridge is so badly needed, the Times feels assured that the citizens will raise half the amount of money necessary to build it, and this we don't believe can be done at either of the other points.

We believe the authorities of both county and city want to and are willing to do what the people need and require, and to this we suggest that as the county is now already in debt, and the city has no money to throw away, the people interested go ahead and raise half the necessary money to build them, and this will enable the authorities to finish up the bridges entirely in the city and county. We can and ought to do this, and to this end the Clay City Times will start the subscription by putting down $100. Let us hear from others encouragingly and we are sure the county and city will freely act accordingly. If possible this bridge business should be closed out this fall, and thereby let Powell be a model county at least from the important point of bridges. If everybody vitally interested will put their shoulder to the wheel and do their duty, we can get these bridges without a great burden to either city or county.

THE TEACHERS INSTITUTE.

The Powell County Teachers' Institute convened at Stanton on the 18th of July. Prof. R. M. Shipp, of Winchester was the instructor. Prof. Shipp is an enterprising and scholarly gentleman, well qualified for Institute work. Most all of the schools in the county were represented and by earnest, enthusiastic teachers.

We feel that the citizens of Stanton deserve our highest commendation for the kindness with which they so generously favored us during the week. At the close of the Institute the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, that we heartily thank Prof. Shipp for the able and proficient manner in which he has conducted our Institute.
2. Resolved, that while we miss the presence of our ex-Superintendent R. A. Irvin, Sr., and also, Mrs. Grace Crow who was one of our sister teachers, as we observe their vacant seats in our Institute, we rejoice with them in having entered into the spiritual enjoyments of the world beyond. We also desire to express our warmest sympathies for the many friends who moan their departure.
3. Resolved, that we tender our thanks to Prof. John A. Rogers and his vocal choir for the vocal music with which they so courteously favored us.
4. Resolved, that we congratulate Superintendent Rogers for the efforts he is making to execute the new school law.
5. Resolved, that we recommend to the next General Assembly of Kentucky the passage of a law requiring elementary agriculture to be taught in the public schools.
6. Resolved, that we petition our next Legislature to make some modification of that clause of the present school law which requires each sub-district to contain at least forty pupils.

Carrie Kirkpatrick,
Minnie Belle Congleton, Committee.

Elections of Trustees.

Trustees will be elected in the various sub-districts of the county Saturday, August 6. The law provides that candidates for this office must file a petition with the county clerk at least ten days before the election is held, when his name will be placed on the ballot. In some counties trustee elections have become about as exciting as county Magistrate races used to be.

Mrs. A. T. Carruthers, of Lexington and Miss Josephine Logan, of Christiansburg are visiting the Highland Orphanage.

Call for Convention.

The Democrats of Powell county will assemble at the courthouse in Stanton, Ky., at 1 o'clock p. m. on Saturday, Aug. 6th, 1910, for the purpose of selecting, and, if desired, instructing delegates to attend the District Convention to be held at Mt. Sterling, Ky. at 1:30 o'clock p. m. on Tuesday, Aug. 9th, 1910 for the purpose of selecting a Democratic candidate for Congress to be voted for in the Tenth Congressional District at the November election, 1910. J. H. O'Rear, Ch'm Powell Co. Dem. Ex. Com.

A Washington Dispatch to Women; Men Must Not Read.

Madam, have you been to the dry goods store lately—the dry goods store in your own town?

Have you noticed that you must pay from 10 to 12 cents these days for the standard muslins that retailed for 8 and 9 not so long ago?

And do you know that gingham that sold last year for 7½¢ a yard now cost 8½¢?

These questions are addressed to the womenfolks. In fact, this article is dedicated to the women of Clay City. This is because the editor has asked for a political letter from Washington for the sole interest of his women readers.

Yes, the request was somewhat unusual. The newspaper correspondents who sit in the Press Galleries in United States Capitol seldom if ever prepare an article for the enlightenment of the women of the land. But why not? Is it not true that they do more buying than the men? And that increased prices pinches the women even more than the men?

Now if you have noted that muslins and gingham and such are higher do you know the reason? Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island and Senator Flint of California stated on the floor of the Senate that the retailers were to blame for the upward tendency of prices. These Senators were simply trying to pass the responsibility from their shoulders, where it belongs, to the shoulders of the corner store, where it does not belong. Your local dealer is as blameless for increasing prices as you are.

Then who is to blame? I can give you the answer. The colored gentleman in the woodpile is the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. The members of Congress who voted for this measure will be explaining to your husbands before long that they voted for protection. But what they really voted for was extortion.

Ginghams and laces are not the only things that cost more because of the passage of the "extortion" bill. Take stockings for instance:

A year ago a popular seller was a German knit cotton stocking with a seamless foot and Louis Hermesdorf dyes. This stocking cost the merchant $2.25 a dozen pairs and sold for 25 cents a pair.

Last year a certain American stocking, not so well dyed, nor so well made, cost the merchant $1.75 a dozen pairs.

Today the American stocking costs the merchant $2.25 a dozen and sells for 25 cents. Do you see the point? The tariff has raised the price of its German rival 10 cents a pair, and it is no longer on sale. The greedy American gets a monopoly on stockings. Then he immediately raises his price to the retailer. And you are now paying the same price for an inferior article that you used to pay for a good article.

Higher prices and cheaper qualities! That is the short definition of Aldrichism.

Here is a table supplied by a leading wholesale dry goods establishment which tells its own story:

Men's, women's and children's hosiery, cost prior to Payne tariff, per doz. $1.67, $1.84, $2.21, and $2.50. Cost of same articles today, per doz. $1.88, $2.05, $2.48 and $2.86.

Men's cotton and Jersey gloves, cost prior to Payne tariff, per doz. $0.72, $1.26, and $1.62. Cost of same article today, per doz. $1.17, $1.65 and $1.98.

Women's clothes cost more this year than they did last as a result of the Payne-Aldrich bill. A women's ready-made suit costs $3 more than it did, for a pattern of the same quality. The woman who bought a pattern and made her own spring suit had to pay $1 a yard for common blue serge that she bought last year at 75 cents, or for broadcloth $1.50 a yard for what was formerly $1.25.

Nor are these things an exception. Take wollen blankets, take wollens of any kind, take men's, ladies' and children's gloves—but why more examples? If you have been shopping you know the story better than the writer.

But on one thing, at least, the Washington correspondent, if he knows his business, can put you straight. Your local retailers, American women, are not the responsible parties. It is true that the clew to higher prices leads into the local retailer's, but it is also true that is runs right on through and out of his back door.

The really responsible parties are the members of Congress who voted for the Payne-Aldrich bill. And you might, by the way, inquire around and find out just how your member voted.

If he voted "aye," nail him. And nail him hard! For he is the villain in the piece.

Why allow your horses and cattle to suffer with flies when you can get a preparation that will kill them off and keep them off for 24 hours at C. Shimfessel's.

How They Manage Them in Germany.

In the empire of Germany practically all the potash mines in the world are found, and in that country they are very numerous. A few years ago this valuable mineral which is the chief fertilizer of this and other countries, began to be mined too extensively which meant to the mine operators not so much profit for them, so they formed an agreement, or what we call in this country a trust, whereby each mine was to sell so much of the world's supply and at an agreed price. Before it had been that a mine could cut the price a little and run all the time while other mines which held out for a good stiff profit could run but a short time. After the trust was formed all mines worked the same time and sold for the same profit. The German government learned of this and passed a law taxing the trust a small per cent. to pay for a commission to try themselves which was also found guilty of combining to fix rates and which was also found to be selling their products cheaper abroad than they did in Germany. The commission fined them an amount equal to the excessive profits, and dissolved the trust, and the whole proceeding were paid for by the trust with no expense to the people whatever.

How different in this country. The Government will appropriate large sums of money to "bust" the trusts and appoint great men for the job. These men will investigate, take to the courts and try the case, and if a jury gives a verdict for the government, a higher judge knocks it all out and the trust is only made stronger. That's just what the government wanted done. Then the trust puts a few thousand dollars into the Republican campaign fund and all is lovely again.

Will Not Destroy its Offspring.

John W. Kern, the admirable Democratic nominee for Vice-President, recites true conditions when he says: "The Republican party being the parent of the protective system cannot be expected to destroy its offspring. Even the insurgents cling to the system and proclaim its righteousness while declaring themselves in favor of reducing the duty in certain schedules; substituting, as it were, petit larceny for grand larceny; plain unostentatious burglary for highway robbery. Only the Democratic party can be trusted to work out the needed reform, but to fit itself for the work it must select for its leaders men free from alliances with special interests; men strong enough, and discreet enough to strike down all unlawful monopolies that plunder the people, while at the same time protecting and encouraging every legitimate business enterprise in the land."

Senator Cummins Republican Says, "Speaker Cannon and Senator Aldrich are driving the country into a socialistic form of government and industry because of their interest in promoting the cause of monopolies. They are unwilling to take measures to prevent the rapidly growing tendency toward monopoly or to disintegrate and destroy the monopolies already in existence, whereby the prices of commodities are fixed, not by the usual laws of trade, but by the will of a single man or group of men. Monopoly does not mean a single factory with absolute control of one article, but a combination of factories making the same article, whereby the prices are the same in all, whether or not the factories are owned by one company or are controlled through a trust agreement.

Recent zephyrs Sagamore hill waft the tidings that the Colonel is neither "for" the insurgents nor "ag'in" the regulars he likes 'em both, forsooth. Also that, as regards the governorship of New York, he is "for the best man." All of which is exceedingly illuminating, but strangely unsatisfying to several million hero worshipers who have been waiting impatiently for the Colonel to pounce upon a certain fat gentleman and eat him alive.

They now say that when Johnny Langley made so many promises in the last campaign, such as promising the mountain counties turnpikes, Estill county bridges at Irvine and Vienna and etc., it was only an electioneering scheme to get votes. Just so the Times told the people that was the case during the campaign. The question now perplexing the people is, how can we know to take Johnny seriously.

A great deal just now is being said about divorcing the Democratic party from the saloons. The Times would like to know when the two were united. Because four bolting Democrats voted for Bradley the whiskey candidate against Beckham, a temperance advocate, is no reason why the two are one. These bolters had to leave their party to support a whiskey man.

The Times still believes that getting votes under false pretenses is just as wicked as getting goods under false pretenses. The difference is in the law which applies only to the latter, but it should apply to both alike.

Colonel Roosevelt could easily recoup that $5,000 a year he says it costs him to be ex-president, and have some spending money besides, by making a deal with the moving picture trust.

The Mt. Sterling Advocate, supposed to be Democratic, last week issued a "Special", the main feature of which seems to be a great boost for Congressman Langley.—Estill Herald.

It is said 15,000,000 words were spoken during the recent session of Congress. Congress was almost as great a word mill as Reno, Nevada.

The suggestion that "Mr. Roosevelt will take the stump" is a trifle confusing. Seems as if he took it eight years ago, and still has it.

FIFTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION

BLUE GRASS FAIR KNOWN AS GREATEST HORSE SHOW IN THE WORLD.

VERY JUSTLY DESERVES TITLE

This Year Will Have a Larger List of Entries—Will Eclipse All Former Records.

The fifth annual exhibition under the auspices of the Blue Grass Fair Association at Lexington, Ky., begins Monday, August 8, and continues for six days and nights, through Saturday, August 13.

Within the five years of its history, the Blue Grass Fair has taken full rank with the largest and best of the state fairs and expositions of America. It has come to be known, and very justly so, as the greatest horse show in the world. It is true that in certain heavy harness horse classes its rings do not equal those of some eastern horse shows, but at no other fair or horse show ever attempted could the same excellence of exhibits be secured in both breeding and show classes for horses. And this fact has served to give the Blue Grass Fair very justly its title, to make of it each year an event of surpassing national importance to lovers of the horse and to all interested in the development and the achievement of the show horse.

Thousand Dollar Stake.

Pitched on a larger and more extensive scale, with the certainty of increased interest on every hand, this year's fair promises to eclipse all records. For in addition to the Thousand Dollar Stake for five-gaited saddle horses, which last year was the most important event of its kind contested, the management of the association has added two new saddle stakes this year, each to have a value of three hundred dollars, each for three-year-olds and under; the one for horses shown to five gaits and the other for horses shown to three gaits.

The addition of these two stakes is made to emphasize and to carry out the work which the Blue Grass Fair regards as particularly its own, namely, the propagation and advancement of interest in the young stock which comes from the vicinity of Lexington. No where else is the same attention paid to this young stock and at no other fair or horse show were two stakes of the value of these, along similar lines, ever offered.

Opens August 8th.

The Fair will be opened at noon of Monday, August 8, when a speaker of national prominence will deliver a brief address. Interesting show rings will be then seen, races will be contested, a great program of free acts will be given, a concert by the famous Thaviu Russian Band will continue throughout the afternoon, and the first of the series of aeroplane flights, which will be a feature of the week, will be witnessed. Monday night, beginning at 7:30 will come another concert from the Thaviu Band and the famous aggregation of Herbert A. Kline's world renowned shows will be in full blast.

A Great Race.

On Tuesday morning the show of jack stock and of Hereford Cattle will be held in front of the grand stand and breeds of sheep and swine will be judged in a special pavilion prepared for that purpose. The feature of Tuesday afternoon, which will be known as Lexington day, will be the Thousand Dollar Race for Two-year-old Trotting Horses, the richest of its kind ever offered by any fair association and now become an annual feature of the Blue Grass Fair, having been offered first last year. There will also be other harness horse races as well as running races on Tuesday afternoon, the running races having begun with Monday's programme. Eleven excellent showings will also be contested during the afternoon of Tuesday and the programme will be from every standpoint most interesting and instructive.

A Banner Program.

On Wednesday morning will be shown breeding classes for Standard Bred Horses, premiums in which carry a value of several thousands of dollars, and on this morning also will come the great Jersey Cattle show always one of the most interesting features of the Blue Grass Fair, and one of the most important in its national bearing, because of the prominent place which Kentucky Jerseys take in every show throughout the land and because this is the first important Jersey show of the year. There will be further exhibits of different breeds of sheep and swine on Wednesday morning, while Wednesday afternoon will come, as the primary feature, the great Thousand Dollar Stake for Five-gaited Saddle Horses. In this stake last year were twelve entries. It was watched with unabated interest by more than twenty thousand people. This year's list of exhibitors will be even larger and the attendance induced to witness the splendid contest should eclipse all former records. There will be ten other first-class show rings during the afternoon, besides an interesting racing programme.

Thursday is always the biggest day at the Blue Grass Fair, and a programme commensurate with its importance, a programme certain to prove thoroughly entertaining to the crowds which flock to the grounds has been arranged. The morning will be given over to the great show of breeding classes for American Saddle Horses. Frequently in past years there have been as many as twenty-five entries in several of these rings, and the show is so interesting from every standpoint and in every way as to make it well worth coming to the grounds at ten o'clock in the morning in order to witness in its entirety. The show of Shorthorn Cattle also takes place on Thursday morning. A thousand dollars is given to this one breed by the management of the Blue Grass Fair, as well as certain special premiums, and it is a show which takes rank with the very best throughout the country. In the afternoon another excellent programme of show horses will be seen; there will be interesting running races and various features of importance.

Friday morning sees the show of mules, the best show of its kind held anywhere in the country, and the contests for the handsome prizes hung up for the Aberdeen-Angus Cattle. And Friday afternoon there is both an interesting racing programme and a splendid programme for show horses.

Children's Day.

On Saturday special provision is made for the children in that a Shetland pony is given to the child buying the coupon ticket, which, in the drawing that takes place on the grounds, entitles the holder to this splendid little animal. But, aside from that, Saturday's show is in many respects the best of the entire week. On that day are seen the Breeding Classes for Thoroughbred Horses, which carry with them, in the intrinsic value of the premiums, ten thousand dollars. Then on Saturday afternoon come all the various Championships between the different show horses that have done battle in their respective classes throughout the preceding days of the week.

The fair will close in a blaze of glory with the last of the band concerts and the last performance of the Herbert A. Kline shows, Saturday night.

ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPHS

Reproduced in Wonderful Five-Sheet Posters For Blue Grass Fair.

Probably the most attractive paper ever put out by a fair association is that which has been used this year to advertise the big Blue Grass Fair, which will be held at Lexington the week of August 8 to 13. The paper is all made from designs copyrighted by the Blue Grass Fair association, and the views used are taken from actual photographs made on the fair grounds in years past. The most prominent of these is a large five-sheet poster, showing a superb type of a Kentucky saddle horse. One of the best-known exhibitors in America is astride him, and the position of the horse and the pose of the rider are so natural, so graceful and so life-like as to attract immediate attention.

THE POULTRY SHOW

Wide Range of Classifications For Different Kinds of Poultry and Fowls.

The Poultry Show at the Blue Grass Fair, the week of August 8th to 13th, will be one of the largest ever seen in the South. A very wide range of classification has been adopted so as to provide classes for all different kinds of poultry and domestic fowls. The interest in the raising of poultry throughout Central Kentucky has increased vastly within the past few years. Many farms are now given over to the raising of poultry where was never before attempted. To encourage this interest the Blue Grass Fair has made liberal provisions for all of these different classes, and it is assured that the number of entries for the poultry department alone will be unprecedented in the history of a Kentucky fair.
